REMINDERS

EMERGENCY: During an emergency drill, be sure to close your door when you leave the room.

EXCITING: Is something exciting going on in your room? Please try to give Cheryl Fridenstine at least 2-3 days notice to enable her to be there to take pictures.

Staff/Student Vehicles: Only authorized students should be permitted to move vehicles in the parking lot and bull pen area.

END OF CLASS PERIODS: Do not allow students to stand at the door way at the end of the class periods. Please keep students in their seats.

Purchase Requisitions Deadlines: April 14, 2017 is the last day to submit a requisition to purchase equipment. May 5, 2017 is the last day to submit a requisition for all other purchases (supplies, services, student activities, etc.) Be sure to email Debbie Dumke the items included in any Amazon Order.

ATTENDANCE: All first period teachers are responsible for the accuracy of their attendance sheets. Please be sure the information you provide to the Attendance Office is correct.

- Do not verify student attendance with a sign in sheet passed around the classroom.
- If a student's placement schedule is being modified, please notify the Attendance Office 24 hours prior to change.
- All placement and Work Based Learning changes need to be approved by Bill Elliott in the Career Services Office.
- If you are having a student work in your classroom during study hall, they must first report to study hall for attendance. The study hall teacher is responsible for accurate student attendance.

BAKERY PASTRY ARTS*AHS: BLOOD DRIVE RESULTS

Thanks to the students, staff, friends and family members who were able to donate their blood yesterday, we met our goal and collected 69 more units of blood. Added to the fall and spring drive totals. LifeShare blood services collected 317 units of blood for school year.

Great Job JVS!

Seniors may collect the red hero graduation honor cords they earned for their generous donations during the week of May 8th in the front lobby.
